State of North Carolina Iredell County: Court of Pleas & Quarter Sessions August Sessions 1832

On this __ day of August 1832 personally appeared in open Court before the justices of the Court of Pleas & Quarter Sessions now sitting Thomas Brotherton resident in Wilkes County State of North Carolina aged seventy-six years who being first sworn according to law doth make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed the 7th day of June 1832.

That he entered the service of the United States and served in the revolutionary war under the officers as is herein stated. That he entered as a volunteer for three months under Captain Nichols Major McGuire, Colonel Locke and General Rutherford, joined the Court at Salisbury marched to Fayetteville NC which town he assisted in guarding for some time, returned home and was discharged believes this tour was performed in the spring of the year 1775 in the fall of the same year he was a volunteer under the same officers for a tour of three months against the Cherokee Indians. That afterwards he entered and served as a volunteer under the same Captain who then commanded a company of Horse. This tour was performed in guarding the frontiers at the head of the Catawba [River] in the County of Burke. That in the year 1778, he again entered the service as a volunteer under the command of Captain Richard Graham and Colonel William Davidson joined the Corps at Salisbury and marched from thence to Guilford Court house, thence to Dicks Ferry, thence to Moon's Creek, thence to Salisbury and thence home in a few days marched to South Carolina where they were placed under the command of Captain Ramsay Majors Dickson and Armstrong and Colonel Thaxton of the Continental establishment, this was done at Purrysburg on the Savannah River, Sometime after he was transferred from the command of Captain Ramsay to Captain Lewis of the light infantry under whom he marched to Charleston and was in an engagement with the British at that place from thence he was marched to Stono and was in the battle at Stono Ferry and was wounded slightly in the breast. Afterwards, and about the 5th September 1779, he was discharged at Bacons Bridge having been at this time 16 months in service. He has lost this discharge the only one he remembers to have received. He afterwards entered as a volunteer under Captain Nichols in a Company of horse and served a 2 months tour in scouting and searching for Tories in Wilkes & Iredell Counties. And was near the place at the time Cornwallis crossed the Catawba. He honestly and conscientiously believes that he has served in these different tours more than 2 years. He has no documentary evidence nor can he obtain any other evidence of his services than is hereto annexed. He relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and declares that his name is not on the pension Roll of the Agency of any State. He was born in Pennsylvania in the year 1757. He has no record of his age. He was living in Rowan County NC now Iredell when called into service and has sometimes lived in the State of Tennessee since the war and now resides in Wilkes County North Carolina. He was called into service in the manner stated above and served under the officers therein named. He received a discharge at Bacons Bridge but none other & has lost the one he had.

for which services I claim a pension

He was born in Cunogocheage [sic, Conococheague?] County Pennsylvania in the year 1757.

He has no record of his age.

He was living in Rowan County at the time he entered the service and lived there until the end of the war, has since lived in Tennessee for 19 years. Sometime he lived in Iredell and was living there when he 1st applied but now lives in Wilkes County NC. He applied in Iredell because he made his 1st application while living in that County.

He was always a volunteer.

He has stated the names of his officers as well as he can remember them.

He received a discharge at Bacons Bridge, but lost it in crossing the Holston [River] when swimming & had no other.

Refers to William Feemster, Joseph Sharpe & William Woodside.

State of North Carolina Secretary's Office 2nd February 1824

Sir

The Declaration of Thomas Brotherton transmitted to me on the 27th Ultimo, is received, and I have carefully searched the musterrolls of the Continental line of this State in the revolutionary war, for his name, but do not find it thereon. It appears from said Rolls that there were no 18 months men enlisted at the time mentioned in said Declaration. And he does not appear that a Colonel by the name of Paxton or a Captain by the name of Richard Graham belonged to the line of this State. I am therefore of opinion that Thomas Brotherton must have been a militia man, or of the South Carolina line.

I am very respectfully your obedient servant

State of North Carolina Secretary of State's Office

I William Hill Secretary of State in and for the State aforesaid, do certify, that it appears by a book of settlements of accounts of the officers and soldiers of the line of this State in the revolutionary war, that Thomas Brotherton was allowed the sum of forty pounds, six shillings and six pence for services performed in said line as a private Soldier.

Given under my hand this 28th of August 1833

S/ Wm Hill

[fn p. 30]

William Woodside, Joseph Sharpe and William Feemster, resident in the County of Iredell and State of North Carolina do certify that they are acquainted with Thomas Brotherton, who has sworn to and subscribed the foregoing declaration, that we believe him to be seventy-six years of age, that he is reputed & believed in the neighborhood where he resides to have been a Soldier of the Revolution and that we concur in that opinion.

William Woodside further states that he served with Thomas Brotherton the 16 months tour as by him set forth and was with him at the battle of Stono.

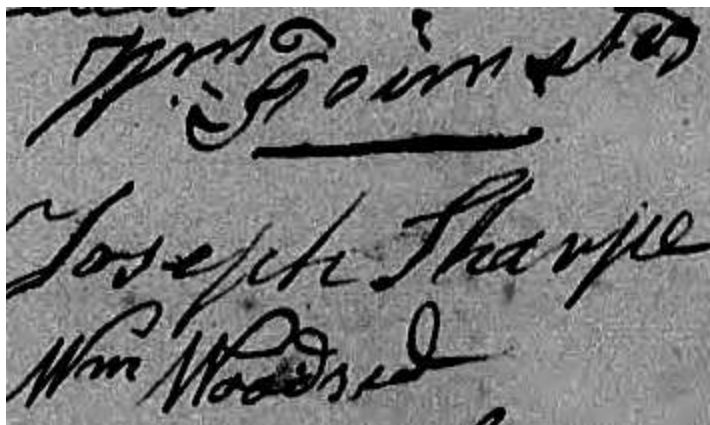

William Feemster states further that himself was near the battle of Stono and from circumstances related to him by Thomas Brotherton respecting that engagement does verily believe that Brotherton was in that Battle.

Joseph Sharpe states that he was with and saw Thomas Brotherton in the expedition to the Cherokee nation.
