[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indecipherable' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention.]

<sup>2</sup> Both Matthew Singleton and Richard Singleton were Lt. Cols in the Camden District Regiment of militia from the St. Mark's Parish. Matthew Singleton, however, is the only one of the two who is believed to have been at the Siege of Charleston, so he is the more likely of the two to be the officer referred to in this claimant's claim. Matthew Singleton was serving as Lt. Col. of the Berkeley County Regiment under Francis Marion at the time of the Siege of Charleston.

[Note: in AA941 filed by Mary Burrough, she claimed for provisions provided to the militia during the Revolution. Indent No.45 Book H dated July 6, 1784 for the sum of £16.12.2 ½ was issued to her. It is clear from the documents in this file that she is the widow of James Burrough above. Among the documents in the file is one signed by her as follows:

. Proof that she is the widow of the above claimant is provided by the following endorsement appearing on the reverse of the indent issued to her.

I John Rains [sic] Administrator of the Estate of James Burrough Deceased and Husband of the late Mrs. Mary Burrough do hereby assign the full of Amount of the Principal and Interest now due & which shall be due on the Certificate within Written to Abraham Pettipool Junior his Executors, Administrators and assigns, having from the said Alexander Pettipool Junior received the full value this 29th September 1787
