[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indcipherable' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention.]

Petition of Reuben Collins for a pension

Report Favor

[p 10]

South Carolina Kershaw District }

The humble petition of Reuben Collins Sheweth that he served in the War of our Revolution in the militia of this State, for more than twelve months; that he served as a private for some time in the company of Captains Petty [Luke Petty] and Dunlap [probably George Dunlap of the Fair fill Regiment] – the company of the former was attached to Colonel Marshal's Regiment; – & that of the latter, to General Sumters [Thomas Sumter's] army ÷ the deponent also state that he was for some time, first Lieutenant in the company of Captain John Grimes of Marshal's Regiment – that he fought in the battles of Rocky Mount [July 30, 1780] – Hanging rock [August 6, 1780] – Parker's ferry [August 31, 1781] – and the Eutaws [presumably Eutaw Springs, September 8, 1781] – that he was commissioned by General Marion [Francis Marion], under whom he fought at the last two mentioned battles, which Commission, with other documents, appertaining to his revolutionary services, were destroyed with his dwelling, by fire: that necessity alone compels him to throw himself upon the liberality of the state

Personally appeared before me William McDowell who being duly sworn saith, that Reuben Collins is very reduced in circumstance, and in consequence of old age is unable to support himself – and that he firmly believes that the said Reuben faithfully served his country in the War of our Revolution – though he did not serve in the same Army with him. – And this deponent further states that the wife of the said Reuben Collins is now, and has been, for at least twenty years past in a helpless condition – so much so as to be compelled to resort to the use of crutches.
