[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indecipherable' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention.]

[p 8: Voucher dated June 30, 1803 for $18 issued by Mrs. Pitman (formerly Mrs. Ava Culliatt) for the pension due her child.

'Received one July 1803

S/ Hardy Pitman'

[p 10: Voucher dated June 9th 1804 for $9 issued to Mrs. Ava Cudray for the annuity for the year 18 044 her Daughter Eleanor Culliatt.]

[Note: This file does not contain the petition of the widow. I have included it in this database because I believe the pension was issued to her for the services of her husband, Adam Culliatt, during the Revolutionary war. That said, however, there is no evidence in the file of his having rendered service during the war.]
