[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indecipherable' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention.]

[p 18]

Mr. Chs. De Tollenare gave in his demand against the Public in time for Every thing taken from him during the War – which he received a part of last year in Indents – but could not for want of witnesses get any thing for the tar – say 60 Barl^s [Barrels] taken away from the warf [wharf] – the Evening General Provost [sic, Augustine Prevost] approached the Lines of Charleston – this account was given him by his factor Tallman, and that it was taken to Light the Lines. This Letter was burnt also the whole of his papers. He will be obliged to the Governors, or the assembly to taken [take] into Consideration this Matter – as it is very hard upon him to Lose so much. Tar being very high [tight?] at that time.

[this petition is unsigned but another document in the file purports to bear his signature as follows:

[Note: I have included this claim in our database because it may be informative as to the history of the various attacks on Charleston South Carolina during the Revolution. The file does not contain any assertion by the claimant that he served in the military during the war.]
