[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indecipherable' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention.]

[p 2: Printed form of indent No. 425 Book Z dated December 18, 1787 “delivered to Mr. John Volvoy this our Indented Certificate for the Sum of Fifty Nine pounds Sterling Pay & [text too faint to discern] due him as a private [text too faint to discern] in Col. Horry’s [Peter Horry’s] Regiment per Account [text too faint to discern] by the Commissioners.”]

I do hereby Assign over all the right, title and Interest John Volvoy has in the within Indent By Virtue of an order from him to

S/ James Neilson

[Note: Although there are several other endorsements on the reverse of the Indent, none appear to be from the veteran.]
