[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indcipherable' or 'undeciphered' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention. Researchers should not rely solely on the transcripts but should review the originals for themselves. These transcripts are intended as an aid to research, not to be used in lieu thereof.]

¹ The South Carolina Audited Accounts (AAs) are now available online at <http://www.archivesindex.sc.gov/>. To find the AA for a specific person, click on the Just take me to the search page link, then enter the person's surname first in the "Full name" box followed by a comma and the person's Christian name. The "SC" file number shown on this transcript has been assigned by the administrator of this website for indexing purposes only and is not an officially recognized file number. The number behind the 'pp' indicates the number of pages in the file and the 'Audited Account No.' is the actual Account Number assigned by the South Carolina Archives.

In the House of Representatives January 22, 1791

The Committee on Mr. Ford's account for his Services as major in Colonel Roebuck's Regiment.

Report –

That on investigation they find that Mr. Ford had delivered his account to Colonel Anderson than a Commissioner authorized to receive the public's accounts and General Pickens [Andrew Pickens'] Brigade, that for want of the necessary Vouchers the Auditor General referred it to the Commissioners of disputed accounts who refused to pass it. That Mr. Ford took back his account from the Commissioners and had the proper Vouchers obtained, but on sending it again down to the Commissioner the person who carried it, lost or misplaced it on his way to Charleston so that Mr. Ford could never receive an Indent or any Satisfaction for Services –

Your Committee therefore being fully Satisfied of the truth of the facts and the justice of the claim, – recommend that the Commissioners of the Treasury be directed to issue an Indent to Mr. Ford for the Principal Sum of one hundred and fifteen pounds fourteen Shillings & three pence Sterling with Interest thereon from the first day of April in the year 1783 – Resolved that this House do agree with the Report

Ordered that the Report and Resolution be sent to the Senate for concurrence

By order of the House
