[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indecipherable' or 'undeciphered' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention. Researchers should not rely solely on the transcripts but should review the originals for themselves. These transcripts are intended as an aid to research, not to be used in lieu thereof.]

Petition of Jennet Glen 1794

December 1st Committee
 Col. Brown
 Col. Bratton
 Mr. Michau

[p 12]

To the Honorable President and others the Honorable members of the House of Senate of the State of South Carolina

The Humble Petition of Widow Jennet Glen

Sheweth

That your Petitioner is the Widow of William Glen, who was taken Prisoner at Briar Creek [March 3, 1779]² when in service of America (under the command of Major Ross [Francis Ross] of Colonel Neel's [Thomas Neel's] Regiment of Militia) and died in confinement, leaving your Petitioner in a helpless situation with six small Children all of whom are now grown up: that thro' the goodness of the State She has hitherto received a Pension or allowance to her great comfort and relief, which has been paid except part of the last Years, but understanding when she last sent to the treasury for said arrears that no more would be paid, without application being first made by Petition to the Legislature.

Your Petitioner therefore humbly suffocates a continuance of said Pension and that your Honorable House would give Orders for the regular payment of the same, that she may be better enabled to subsist with some comfort. And she as in duty bound will ever pray.

Handwritten text in cursive script, likely a receipt or document fragment. The text is arranged in three lines: the first line reads "Jenat J Glen" with "by" written above "Jenat"; the second line reads "Abm. Smith 966" with "mark" written above "Smith"; the third line reads "a And, as Lovement".

[pp 23-26: Receipts in the file reflect the payment of Jenet Glen of an annuity of $60 being June 8, 1819 and ending May 31, 1834. These receipts do not mean that she wasn't on the SC pension list prior to 1819.]
