[Note: This man served as the Collector of Customs for the port of Charleston at the time Charleston fell to the British on May 12, 1780. Unfortunately, the images of the documents contained in his Audited Account file are so compromised as to be incapable of transcription except for several immaterial ones. Examples of his signature as contained in the file appear as follows:

¹ The South Carolina Audited Accounts (AAs) are now available online at <http://www.archivesindex.sc.gov/>. To find the AA for a specific person, click on the Just take me to the search page link, then enter the person's surname first in the "Full name" box followed by a comma and the person's Christian name. The "SC" file number shown on this transcript has been assigned by the administrator of this website for indexing purposes only and is not an officially recognized file number. The number behind the 'pp' indicates the number of pages in the file and the 'Audited Account No.' is the actual Account Number assigned by the South Carolina Archives.
