[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indecipherable' or 'undeciphered' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention. Researchers should not rely solely on the transcripts but should review the originals for themselves. These transcripts are intended as an aid to research, not to be used in lieu thereof.]

Be it remembered that I Alexander Lee, an acting Justice of the Peace in & for the County of Bedford, in the State of Tennessee have this day caused Samuel Knox<sup>1</sup> to come before me, have duly qualified him on the holy Evangelists of Almighty God, to speak the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, touching the services of John Knox in the war of the American Revolution, who deposeth as follows:

Question: State all you know or can remember if you know or remember anything on the subject, relative to the services of John Knox in the American Revolutionary War. State how long he served, where he served, under whom he served and in what capacity he did serve.

Answer: John Knox, who was my brother, served in the Revolutionary War a tour of fifteen months as a listed [enlisted] Soldier. He was on the Island at the time the Battle at the City of Charleston South Carolina [June 28, 1776]<sup>2</sup> under Col. Sumpter [Thomas Sumter] & Captain Brown. He afterwards went from there over the mountains against the Indians and had a fight with them. His second tour was for six months as a volunteer for which period he served as Lieutenant under Captain Walker. He was in a battle during this tour at Coosey-Hatchey Bridge [Coosawhatchie, May 3, 1779].<sup>3</sup> His third tour was for five or six months, under Captain John McClure, during which he had a battle with the British at Rocky Mount [July 30, 1780],<sup>4</sup> and the next engagement was at the Hanging Rock [August 6, 1780],<sup>5</sup> where his Captain got wounded and died. He was a true American. He served three tours, one of fifteen months, as a listed soldier, one of six months as a Lieutenant, and one of five or six, I cannot say which, as a volunteer soldier.
