[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indecipherable' or 'undeciphered' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention. Researchers should not rely solely on the transcripts but should review the originals for themselves. These transcripts are intended as an aid to research, not to be used in lieu thereof.]

State of Tennessee Roane County } County Court July Sessions 1832

On this 24th day of July 1832, personally appeared in open Court before the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions, now sitting for the County of Roane aforesaid, it being a Court of record, Hezekiah Love, a resident of the neighborhood of Kingston in the County and State aforesaid; aged eighty years, who first being duly sworn according to law, makes on his oath, the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed June 7th 1832 -
- That he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers and served as herein stated. General Sumpter [sic, Thomas Sumter] was the principal officer at that time, and affiant believes that Col. Wynne [either Richard Winn or John Winn] and Col. Brannon [sic, Thomas Brandon], were two of the field officers but the names of any others he does not now remember. That John McCoolle [sic, John McCool] ¹ was the Captain under whom affiant served, as a Lieutenant. That he lived in Chester County South Carolina at the time he entered the service, but cannot now recollect the year or month in which he volunteered. That he arrived at Ramsour's in North Carolina, shortly after the engagement there, ² and was present when the troops embodied. That he had gone on with six or seven others, among whom was his Captain, to that place, and with the design of volunteering, which he did. That from Ramsour's he proceeded in General Sumter's Army, to South Carolina, where he was engaged at the battle of Hanging Rock. ³ That from Hanging Rock he went back into North Carolina, from thence, after having obtained recruits, General Sumter marched again into South Carolina. That after having remained awhile in the upper end of the State General Sumter proceeded to the place where Columbia now is -- where an engagement took place, in which affiant was. That from thence they marched down the Congaree and Santee rivers a few miles below Nelson's ferry, from the neighborhood of which General Sumter took his family, along with the Army, back into North Carolina. That after remaining in North Carolina sometime, General Sumter once more marched into South Carolina and affiant was engaged in the battle of Fish Dam Ford ⁴ which shortly afterwards took place. That he there knew Colonels Lacey [Edward Lacey] and Hopkins [David Hopkins]. That having got his horse wounded in this battle he returned into North Carolina, where he remained until the return of General Sumter's Army, when he again joined his company commanded by Captain McCool. That General Sumter having been wounded, (or from some other cause) was, not, as affiant thinks, in the battle of Eutaw Springs,⁵ but that affiant's company joined General Greene (Colonels Hopkins and Lacey being the commanding officers), a short time before that battle ensued, and that affiant was in it. That from the Eutaw Springs, affiant went home. These were the principal engagements in which affiant was concerned as a volunteer.

On his way down the Congaree and Santee rivers he was also in the skirmishes at a place called Buckhead⁶ and also at a place called Scotch Lake [sic, Scott's Lake]⁷. -- Affiant further states that, from his age and total want of education, he cannot remember dates and names with such accuracy as he would desire: and he has no documentary evidence by which he can support the truth of his statements, nor does he know of any person whose testimony he can procure, who can testify to his service. He believes that he served at least three years as a volunteer, altogether. Affiant was born in Chester County South Carolina in the year (as he supposes) of 1752, but he has no record of his age. After the Revolutionary War he moved to Tennessee, from whence he moved to Alabama, where he resided until February last, when he returned to Tennessee and is now living with his son in Roane County. He does not now remember whether or not he ever received a commission as a Lieutenant, but is inclined to think he did not.

He hereby relinquishes every claim to a pension or annuity except the present, and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any State to his knowledge.

State of Tennessee Roane County: March 15th 1833

This day personally appeared before me William Galbreath one of the acting Justices of the peace that holds the quorum Court of Record for Roane County, Hezekiah Love Junior after being duly sworn deposed and saith that Hezekiah Love Senior, who has applied for a pension under the act of Congress passed June 7th 1832 whose claim has been sent back, with 3 objections, viz. -- That applicant does not show how long he served with sufficient precision, as militia man nor the different grades -- secondly that the 7th Interrogatory is not answered -- also it is objected that the witnesses are not produced to prove his services. This deponent states that the applicant Hezekiah Love has become so infirm and reduced from old age & affliction that he is now unable to answer questions or undergo an examination. Deponent states that he has been intimately acquainted with applicant for a great many years and have often heard him speak of his services in the revolutionary war in the United States Army both in the militia and regular service and always understood from him applicant that he served eighteen months in the regular service which was his first service, Deponent states that he also understood from applicant before the passage of the last law in June 7th that he applicant served three years as a volunteer mounted rifle man, part of the time as private & part of said time as a Lieutenant; Deponent further states that the following citizens & neighbors believe applicant to be a man of veracity & integrity and
