Folks are free to make non-commercial use this transcript in any manner they may see fit, but please extend the courtesy of acknowledging the transcriber—besides, if it turns out the transcript contains mistakes, the resulting embarrassment will fall on the transcriber. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading fails to catch all misinterpretations. I welcome and encourage folks to call those errors to my attention.]

State of North Carolina Moore County: SS

On this 27th of January 1846 Personally appeared in open Court Richard Warner a resident of said County aged fifty-six and being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefits of the provision made by the act of Congress passed the 4th of July 1836. That he is the son of Elizabeth Warner who was the widow of Hardin Warner -- who was a soldier in the Revolutionary war in the Continental line of North Carolina. That his said Father enlisted for the term of the war and served three years and six months and Colonel Sheppard's Regiment under Captain Blount as he heard him say the number of the Regiment he does not recollect and that not long after the close of the war he sold his Bounty land to one Philip Hodge as he told him many times -- And he further saith that his said Father and Mother was married in Greene County North Carolina and that his said Father Hardin Warner died in the month of April 1833 (and was at the time of his death about seventy-five years old) -- and that his said Mother Elizabeth Warner remained a widow from the time of his Father's death as above -- up to the day of her death which occurred on 26th day of November 1842 -- and that she left surviving her five children namely -- Wincy Warner the oldest child, who married William Sears,-- Polly Warner who married Holden Cox -- Nancy Warner who married Thomas Grayham, myself Richard Warner and Hardin Warner Junior -- and he further saith that his Mother's maiden name was Elizabeth Turnage and that at her death she was about eighty years old -- and he further saith that he has no family Bible or other evidence of the marriage of his said Father and Mother but well remembers to have heard them say they were married before the last period of his service in the war and that they had one child born before the close of the war and he further saith that his said Father and Mother had 3 children older than myself and that there was 2 years and a half between the births of each child -- and he further saith that he supposes the reason his said Mother never made application for a pension was she did not know she was entitled as he never heard her speak of applying and that he himself did not know until recently that the heirs of a soldier was entitled to a pension and that when he ascertained fact he has made application for what was due his Mother at the time of her death for the services of his deceased Father Hardin Warner and he does now for himself Brother & Sisters relinquish all claim to a pension except the present. Sworn to and subscribed in open court the day and year above written.
