[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading fails to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call errors or omissions to my attention.]

That she is the widow of Elisha Hogg who was a soldier of the Revolutionary War that her husband the said Elisha Hogg deceased, enlisted in the year 1778 for three years and served in Captain Benjamin Coleman's Company in the Continental Army for that Period of time that she well recollects the time when her husband left home to join the Army in the spring of the year, in the commencement of the planting season and he did not return home until the termination of his tour of enlistment. She recollects the time of his return from another circumstance which was about the time Lord Cornwallis passed through the Country not very far from where they lived that her husband the said Elisha Hogg stated to her he served under Captain Benjamin Coleman and that he performed the Service he stated, she is well convinced as are all her neighbors who were acquainted with him. She further declares she was legally married to her husband the said Elisha Hogg in the month of August 1776 by the Reverend James Heflin a Minister of the gospel in the County of Johnston. That her maiden name was Pattey Taylor and she resided in the County where she was married that she has no Record of her marriage nor the ages of her children; the oldest of home, Lary Hogg was born in the year 1777 and is now 66 years old to the best of her knowledge having been born about 12 months after we were married, and some time before her husband left home to join the Army; that her husband the said Elisha Hogg died in the month of January in the year 1829 aged 86 years and that she has remained a widow ever since as will more fully appear by reference to the proofs hereunto annexed.
