[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indecipherable' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention.]

[Note: This file contains yet another affidavit but the quality of the image is so poor that it is mostly illegible as posted online. According to the index card, the affidavit MAY be that of Lt.

Robert George of the Virginia Marines.]

Here is my feeble attempt to decipher the above:

I Certify that Philip Hupp served as a Soldier in the Marine Service under the command of Captain Willing on an Expedition from Fort Pitt down the Mississippi from the 10th day of January 1778 [last digit very faint and unclear] to the 3rd day of June 1779 inclusive for which services he is entitled to be paid by Captain Jas. Willing [James Willing]² or the United States. [Several lines of text too faint for me to discern any but of few miscellaneous scattered words.]

1779 Robt. George, Capt.

² Gwathmey has the following entry for Capt. James Willing:

Willing, James, Captain in Navy; commanded the Rattletrap on an expedition to New Orleans in Dec., 1777; appears in Capt. O'Hara's Co. at Fort Pitt in Mch., 1778; appears on a list of prisoners at Long Island taken at sea dated Dec. 7, 1778.
