NOTE: On 30 July 1855 Edith Talley, aged 78 on 3 Mar of that year, applied for a pension stating that she married Henry Talley in York District SC on 1 Dec 1795, and he died 4 June 1836. She further stated that she married Francis Hopkins on 10 Aug 1837 but separated after about five months, "he having disposed of her property contrary to a marriage settlement; and otherwise ill treated her." She submitted documents showing that after she left him, Francis Hopkins sued her for divorce alleging that "the pleasing anticipations growing out his marriage began to give place to mortifications heartburnings and deep regrets for that shortly afterwards the said Edith grew intolerably illnatured and crabed and disagreeable beyond comparison that said Edith has wholly refused to aid comfort and succor him when in sickness and has absolutely refused to prepare one article of food for [him] or wash his clothes or do any further piece of kindness or service to render [his] life in any wise tolerable," and that she was "a most intolerable scold and renders [his] live nothing better than a Purgatory on earth." On 1 Aug 1855 Edith Talley applied for bounty land, stating that her name before marriage to Henry Talley was Hubbard. Another document refers to the first two children of Henry and Edith Talley as follows: Lucy born 27 Dec 1796, and Betsy Crumpton born 24 Dec 1798.
