[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indecipherable' or 'undeciphered' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention. Researchers should not rely solely on the transcripts but should review the originals for themselves. These transcripts are intended as an aid to research, not to be used in lieu thereof.]

State of Tennessee White County: SS

On this 9th day of April 1833 personally appeared in open Court before the Justices of the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of said County now sitting, David Goodwin of said County aged Seventy years on the 24th day of February last, who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following Declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed June 7, 1832. That he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers and served as herein stated.

He cannot pretend to precise accuracy as to dates, but he believes his first tour of duty commenced in the spring of the year 1779 in the 17th year of his age, having passed his 16th year. He then resided in Saint David's Parish, in the State of South Carolina – the state afterwards being laid off into Districts, "Saint David's Parish" was called "Darlington District." He volunteered under Captain William Standard whose company was attached to a Regiment commanded by Colonel Abel Culp [Abel Kolb], whose Regiment belonged to the brigade (or at all events the troops) commanded by General Francis Marion: This tour was for three months; and the object of raising the troops was to fight the Tories, and protect the Country from annoyed the British, and kill as many of them as possible. The troops remained the principal part of the time in and about the Saint David's Parish. The only engagement he was in, was taking a Fort on Santee,² which he thinks was called "the Scotch Lake Fort" – In taking this fort, there was but two of General Marion's men killed – Colonel Lea [Henry "Light Horse Harry" Lee], was at the taking of this fort and commanded some horsemen and also some light infantry. He had several of his men wounded but not mortally, he thinks, to the best of his recollection that after the British in the fort surrendered, they were paroled. There were also about fifteen Tories in the fort, who were taken prisoners. – After this, nothing remarkable happened, during the remainder of the three months. He was not discharged in writing – it was not then customary.

Some short time after the expiration of this first tour he entered upon a Second for one month – as a Substitute for John Flowers, his stepfather. He doesn't remember whether Flowers was drafted, or whether he volunteered, but recollects distinctly that he went out on this occasion in place of Flowers. On this occasion he recollects the name of his Lieutenant – John Peoples [John Peebles]: his Captain's name he does not recollect – nothing remarkable happened during this month – he was still under Marion – the troops were stationed on Santee, still in Saint David's Parish.

² The veteran appears to be describing the taking of Fort Watson on April 16, 1781.

Sometime after this, he cannot say how long, it was however but a short time, he volunteered under Captain Morris Murphy Junior or Murphree [Maurice Murphy], for three months – his Colonel's name was also Morris Murphy (Senior) [Maurice Murphy]. The object of this tour of duty was to guard the Country against the depredations of Colonel McNeal [perhaps Hector McNeill], a Tory commander. They were not in any engagement or battle during this tour of duty – he was under General Marion – though out the whole of his service, except when on scouting parties, for which he asked nothing – he hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and he declares his name is not on the pension roll of any agency in any State.

Answers to the interrogatories³ prescribed by the War Department, and propounded by the Court –

1st – He was born in what is now Darlington District – and what was then Saint David's Parish on the 24 day of February 1763

2. He has a Record of his age now in his possession.

3. When called into service he lived in what is now Darlington District – in the State of South Carolina – From thence he went to Molberry [Marlborough] District where he lived about six years – from there he went to Georgetown South Carolina and remained four months – From thence he went again to Darlington – from thence to Chesterfield District where he remained about two years – from thence he again returned to Darlington where he remained three years. He returned and lived in Chesterfield about one year. From thence he went to the high hills of Santee, where he remained about ten months; this was in Sumter District. From – He then returned to Chesterfield and lived ten years – He then returned once again to Darlington where he remained until about six years ago, when he came to the County of White and State of Tennessee, where he now resides.

4. As already stated he went out twice as a volunteer and on one occasion as a substitute for John Flowers.

5. He does not recollect any other regular officers than Colonel Lea – Colonel Mayhem [probably Colonel Hezekiah Maham] and Colonel Oree [Peter Horry] – he is not positive that all these were officers of the regular Army. He has stated the General Circumstances of his Service as fully as he can recollect them.

6. He never received a written discharge, but was dismissed from the service –

7. He refers to, and states the names of the following persons in his present neighborhood to whom he is known and who can Testify as to his character for veracity & who can testify as to their belief of his services as a soldier of the revolution. Jesse Lincoln, Eli Sims Esquire, Isaac Taylor and the Reverend Hezekiah Dildine.
