State of Virginia, Chesterfield county to wit

On this thirteenth day of August in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and thirty two, personally appeared before the county court of Chesterfield, being a court of record now sitting William Fendley, a resident of said county of Chesterfield, and state of Virginia, aged seventy six years, who being first duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath, make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the provision made by the act of Congress passed the 7th of June 1832.

That he enlisted in the month of [blank] in the year 1778, in the said county of Chesterfield, where he then resided, in the Virginia state line (believed to be on the continental establishment) for the term of one year, that he was then marched to the state of Pennsylvania and assigned to the company commanded by Captain William Fowler in the 5th Virginia Regiment, commanded by Colo. Parker in the Brigade commanded by General Muhlenburg [Peter Muhlenberg], and continued to serve as a soldier therein until the expiration of the period of his enlistment, which took place on or about the [blank] day of [blank] in the year 1779, when he was discharged from service at Rowland's ferry on the Potomac river in Virginia –

That Obadiah Smith and William Smith were the subaltern officers attached to Captn. Fowler's company. That while in the army he marched about in the neighbour hood of Germantown, Valley Forge, Philadelphia, and into the states of New Jersey & New York, that said company was stationed in the rear of the Army at the battle of Monmouth [June 28, 1778] but did not participate in the engagement – he has no recollection whether he received a written discharge or not, and hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity, except the present, and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of any agency in any state –

William Fendley

Sworn to and subscribed the day and year aforesaid.

Ezekiel Perkinson¹ personally appeared before the court aforesaid, on the day aforesaid, and made oath in open court, that, the preceding declaration of William Fendley in relation to his services in the Company Commanded by Captain Fowler in the Regiment commanded by Colonel Parker in the Virginia state line, is correct and true, for that he the said Ezekiel Perkinson belonged to said Company and knows that they both served the full time of one-year. Sworn to and subscribed, the day and year aforesaid.
