[On 4 Nov 1833 Dunston made the following statement regarding Peter Barnard (S19356):] I enlisted myself early in the spring of the year 1777 as a soldier in Capt Machen Boswell's Company of Infantry, & marched with that Company in the spring of the year 1778 along with Capt Peter Barnards Company & many others, to the northern station, where I remained 'till the winter of 1780 or 1781 when I returned to Gloucester, and was discharged, having served out the term of three years, for which I had enlisted. The said Peter Barnard returned with his Company from the north at the same time I did. A short time after my return from the north, I reentered the service as a soldier and was at Yorktown, at the surrender of Lord Cornwallis [19 Oct 1781] – very soon after which I went out to the south under the command of Capt. Roy and remained there till the end of the war, when I returned to Cumberland Court House and was there discharged.]

On 4 Apr 1853 Alice Dunston, 57, applied for a pension stating that she married Almon Dunston on 17 Dec 1814, and he died 20 Jan 1837. William Bristow deposed that he had been present at the marriage of Almon Dunston to Alice or Elcy Bristow. On 3 Apr 1855 Alice Dunston applied for bounty land. A document in the file states that Alice Dunston died on 18 April 1865 leaving the following children: Mary Ann Darnel, wife of William Darnel; and Alice Dunston. On 25 Feb 1867 William and Mary Ann Darnel and Alice Dunston assigned power of attorney to John P. Bristow of Middlesex County to obtain their mother's pension, which had been suspended during the Civil War. On 3 June 1867 Robert B. Bristow, with John P. Bristow as security, became administrator of the estate of Alice Dunston. Robert B. Bristow signed an oath of loyalty to the United States probably as a condition for receiving benefits as administrator. On 28 Aug 1867 John S. Groom and George W. Wiatt, former neighbors of Alice Dunston, stated that she had remained loyal to the United States during the Civil War and judged that the claimants to her pension were also loyal, from the following circumstances: "William Darnel the husband of one of the heirs, left the Confederate States' service, returned to his home, some time after the troops left Gloucester Point, and never was in the Confederate States' service afterwards – was reported by the Conscript Officers as a deserter," and "the other heir and one of the claimants Alice Dunston left her home in Gloucester some time during the rebellion and went over to York County and there remained under the protection of the Union forces until the close of the war."
