[Benjamin West gave an affidavit explaining his bed to Thompson Wilson and Benjamin French's liability as his indemnity.]

[On June 7, 1855, Catharine French, 78, of Limestone County Alabama made application for a widow's pension under the act of February 3, 1853 stating that she was the widow of Benjamin French a pensioner, that she married to said French on or about November 10, 1822 [file shows September 23, 1823] in Limestone County and that said Benjamin died in Lauderdale County, Alabama on March 20, 1848.]

[facts in file: Catharine's name prior to her marriage to Benjamin French was Catherine Shumaker [Shoemaker]; Benjamin was born November 28, 1764; Catherine had at least one child, a son, prior to her marriage to Benjamin; several dates appear in the file for the date of death of Benjamin, March 6, 1847, March 21, 1847, March 20, 1848, March 26, 1848, or in March 1849]
