[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indcipherable' or 'undeciphered' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention. Researchers should not rely solely on the transcripts but should review the originals for themselves. These transcripts are intended as an aid to research, not to be used in lieu thereof.]

State of Ohio, Preble County

On this twenty first day of September in the year of our Lord 1832 personally appeared in open Court before the Honorable the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas in and for the County of Preble and State of Ohio now sitting William Gray a resident of Dickson Township Preble County and State of Ohio aged Seventy Six years who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his Oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed June 7th 1832. That he entered the Service of the United States in the North Carolina Militia in the latter part of the summer or fall of 1778 in the County of Randolph in the State of North Carolina (where he then resided) as Captain of a Company of mounted men (or Horse) and that he continued in the service and held and exercised the rank and command of Captain of said Company or troop of Horse for about three years and until the close of the Revolutionary War, & that during said time he found & furnished his own horse and equipage. And that said company was regularly organized and subject to the same rules, laws & regulations of the militia of said State, and was attached to and composed a part of the Randolph Regiment of North Carolina Militia which Regiment was then commanded by Colonel John Colyer [sic, John Collier] and after him by Col. James Duggans [Lt. Col. James Dougan also spelled James Dugan]. And that General Butler [John Butler] commanded the division of Militia to which he was attached. That the military operations of their Regiment during his Service was mostly confined to the State of North Carolina, that they were attached to no body of Regular troops but were always kept in motion marching rapidly from one point to another protecting the Inhabitants from the British soldiers and the Tories, had some severe fighting was in what was called the Needam [sic, Needham?] action<sup>1</sup> near Deep River on the 8th of June he thinks in 1781 Colonels Lofton & Colyer was in the action. That previous to his entering the service he was legally elected Captain of the company which he afterwards commanded, that after his election he received a Brevet commission as Captain signed by General Butler who commanded the Division of Militia to which he belonged, on which he was sworn into office, he does not recollect the date of said Brevet, and has by accident long since lost it. But he continued to serve under it as aforesaid until shortly before he left the service, when he received a commission regularly made out and signed by Alexander Martin then Governor of North Carolina and I. Glasgow Secretary dated 25th of January 1782 which commission he now has & exhibits it to the court, about the time or shortly after he entered the Service Governor Burk [sic, Thomas Burke] then Governor of that State was taken prisoner by the British [September 12, 1781]<sup>2</sup> and was retained for some time and after his release he resigned. This circumstance he assigns as the most probable cause why a regular commission was not sooner made out for him. But he avers & declares that he did serve as aforesaid and that during the time he remained in the Service he held and exercised the rank and command of Captain of said company in the Militia of North Carolina – he cannot state the precise time he left the Service but is certain and positive that he remained in the Service until the close of the War – and his Country no longer needed his Services, he has no hesitation in saying that he Served in the Capacity aforesaid something upwards of three years and that he found & furnished his own horse & equipage during said time he further states that he has no documentary evidence of his said service except his said commission. He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and declares that his name is not on the pension Roll of the agency of any State, he further states that he has no record of his age, But believes he was Born in September 1756 in the County of Lancaster and State of Pennsylvania and that he lived in Randolph County and State of North Carolina when called into Service and Served in the militia of that State and since the Revolutionary war he resided in Blount County in the State of Tennessee and from that place he came to Preble County in the State of Ohio where he now resides and has resided for sixteen years last past. And that he is known to and acquainted with Robert Rhea, John Truax and others in his present neighborhood who can testify as to his character for veracity and their belief of his Services as a soldier of the Revolution.
