[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indcipherable' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention.]

State of South Carolina Edgefield District: SS

On this __ day of June 1819, before me the Subscriber Henry W. Desaussure one of the Judges of the Court of Chancery of the said State, personally appears Henry Mainor [sic] aged about fifty-five years resident on Savannah River in Abbeville District in the said State, who being by me first duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the provision made by the late act of Congress entitled "an act to provide for certain persons engaged in the land & naval service of the United States in the Revolutionary War:" That he the said Henry enlisted in Onslow County in the State of North Carolina in the Company commanded by Capt. William Litle [sic, William Lytle] of Hillsboro, belonging to Col. Archibald Litle's [sic, Archibald Lytle's] Regiment, of the United States regulars North Carolina line about the month of June 1787 [sic, 1777?]; that he continued to serve in the said Corps in the service of the United States until the early part of July in the following year when he received a furlough, permitting him to go at large till called upon, at Charleston in the said State; the troops being dismissed from service before the term had expired for which he was enlisted was the reason of his receiving a furlough instead of a discharge; he further deposes that he was never again called on & that his furlough got wet & was destroyed, so that he can furnish no evidence now that he is on affidavit; that he was at Ashley Hill under General Greene [Nathanael Greene] when the news arrived of Cornwallis's defeat [Yorktown, October 19, 1781], but never was in any engagement, General Greene being induced to suspend his intended operations against Charleston, by the intelligence of Cornwallis's defeat, he further states that he is in reduced circumstances & stands in need of the assistance of his country for support; and that he has no other evidence now in his power of his said Services.

Sworn to & declared before me the day & year aforesaid.

Sworn before me the 7th of June 1819

¹ J. D. Lewis advises that the designation of the 10th Regiment as the regiment in which a veteran served was often the NC Secretary of State's 'default' designation when he could not find muster rolls giving the actual regiment in which the veteran served. J. D. indicates in his online posting that this veteran served in the 4th NC Regiment. See, http://www.carolana.com/NC/Revolution/nc_patriot_military_privates_m.html and search for "Maynor, Henry."
