Edgefield District, South Carolina

On this 18th day of April, 1846, personally appeared before the Honorable, the Court of Ordinary held in and for the District and state aforesaid, Jane Bullock, a resident of South Carolina in the District of Edgefield, aged 85 years past, who, being first duly sworn according to law, doth on her oath make the following declaration...:

That she is the widow of Dan Bullock who was a soldier and served as she verily believes and always understood, truly and faithfully, in the War of the Revolution. That the said Dan Bullock lived, at the time of the war, in Edgefield District, State of South Carolina, and went into the service of the United States as a private enlisted soldier from said district and state, under Captain Tutt [Benjamin Tutt], or Captain Maxwell [David Maxwell] or Captain Moore [James Moore], but does not recollect which of them first, as she thinks he served under all of the during the War, in Colonel Hammond's [LeRoy Hammond's] regiment about the latter part of the year 1778 or the early part of the year 1779, but does not recollect the length of time specified in the enlistment, but knows that he was gone from home nearly four years, and she firmly believes and always understood from him and from three of his neighbors who were with him in the service of his country, that he marched in the early part of the year 1778 about the time of his enlistment, under one of the aforesaid captains down the country towards Charleston, but does not know whether he was engaged in any battles previous to his arrival at Charleston, but he was there in several engagements, and remained there till after the reduction of Charleston. That he was in the engagement [March 3, 1779] at Briar's Creek<sup>1</sup> in Georgia. He was also at the siege of Savannah<sup>2</sup> and of Augusta.<sup>3</sup> That the said Dan Bullock at length, or at some period thereafter [she does not recollect the date] joined General Greene's [Nathanael Greene] Army in Colonel Pickens' [Andrew Pickens] regiment [other officers she does not recollect]. There he remained in said regiment until the end of the war.

That she has no documentary evidence in support of her claim. Her husband's old discharges she has frequently seen, but does not know what has become of them, as they are not now in her possession, nor does not recollect to have seen them since her husband's death. That she does not know of any person living by whom she could prove her husband's services.

She further declares that she was married to the aforesaid Dan Bullock on the 12th day of November, in the year 1789 by a clergyman Tinsley in Columbia County, State of Georgia. That she further declares that she has no documentary evidence of her marriage, other than her family registry, which is hereto annexed. That she knows of no person now living by whom she can prove her marriage. That the leaf hereto annexed containing the date of her and her husband's, the aforesaid Dan Bullock's marriage and the date of birth of their children is the only record of the kind that he ever had, and has undergone no alteration whatever since his death. That the entries therein, that is, the marriage and the birth of the children are in his own handwriting, and all the Sworn to and subscribed on the day and year first above written, in open court before me, John Hill, Ordinary and judge of said court of Edgefield District, South Carolina. I do further certify that Mrs. Jane Bullock, the declarant, is personally known to me, and that she is the relict and widow of Dan Bullock deceased, and that is the identical person whom she represents herself to be in the foregoing declaration. That the leaf hereto annexed purporting to be a family record of Dan Bullock, deceased, was taken from a family Bible in the possession of the declarant. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, this day, April 18th, 1846. John Hill, Justice of the Court of Ordinary, Edgefield District, SC.
