Capt. Combs lived in Louden [sic: Loudoun] County Virginia. at the expiration of that year he enlisted for three years under Capt. William Smith and went to the North and was in the North about four years While at the North he listed during the War and returned home on a Furlough and while at home married as Patsy Baily [Patsy Bailey] now Patsy Martin staid with me a short time I think not more than two or three weeks. Which marriage was, I believe about eighteen months before the close of the war [probably meaning the surrender of Cornwallis, 19 Oct 1781] and said marriage was in Louden County Virginia. he then went back to the north and remained there under Gen George Washington till the war closed. We were married by a baptist minister who published the bans of marriage agreeably to the rules of the Church and the laws of Virginia in such case made and provided. after the close of the War we moved from Louden County, Virginia, to Pytsylvania [sic: Pittsylvania County] Virginia the precise time she cannot recollect But remembers that she had one child only at that time and he was born according to the register in our family Bible November 28, 1779. She further declares that she was married on the first day of March but the date of the year she has entirely forgotten but recollects as she thinks that it was about eighteen months before the war ended, and that her husband Joseph Martin Died the 14th day of February 1832 at his own residence in Henry County Virginia and that she has remained his widdow ever since that time as will more fully appear by reference to Proof hereunto annexed and ever since said marriage she and her husband Joseph Martin lived together as man and wife up to the day of his death and had six children born of her body by the said Joseph Martin (to wit) Stephen Martin Born November 28 1779 born in Virginia and now living in Patrick County Virginia. Be it known that before me Greenville Penn a justice of the peace in and for the county aforesaid, personally appeared Patsy Martin, and made oath in due form of law, that she is the identical person named in an original pension certificate, now illegally withheld by John Purdue of Rockingham County, North Carolina, with whom she lately lived; that while an inmate of his family she gave her pension certificate, for safe keeping to her daughter the wife of said Purdue; that by some means he became possessed of said certificate, and when, in consequence of his ill treatment she was compelled to leave his house, he refused to give it up to her, & still refuses, notwithstanding he has been frequently requested so to do – that she is entitled to a pension of six and two thirds dollars per month as the widow and relict of Joseph Martin dec on account of wounds and disabilities received, or of services rendered by him, to the United States during the war; that she now resides in Patrick County and has resided there for the space of ten months past; and that previous thereto she resided in Rockingham county and State of North Carolina
