Evidence transmitted by the District Court, complete.

[The following in different handwriting:]

On page 165 it appears as follows:

John Bean a pension applicant of the State of Maryland, who was reported on the 25th Apr 1794 as having deserted on the 13th January 1782, has produced his original discharge dated Nov. 22, 1781 signed by Henry (Horatio) Clagett [sic: Claggett], captain in the Maryland line; which discharge is considered as sufficient to clear him of the aspersion of desertion and to entitle him to a pension.
