Pension application of Thomas McClorken (McClurken) W21792 Elizabeth f93SC

[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indecipherable' or 'undeciphered' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention. Researchers should not rely solely on the transcripts but should review the originals for themselves. These transcripts are intended as an aid to research, not to be used in lieu thereof.]

The State of South Carolina Chester District:

On this Second day of April in the year 1833 personally appeared in open court, before the Honorable Richard Gantt one of the Judges of the Court of General Sessions and Common Pleas of said District and State, now sitting, Thomas McClurken a resident of Chester District and State of South Carolina, aged Seventy Seven years who being first duly sworn according to law, doth, on his oath, make the following declaration, in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed June 7th 1832. That he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers and served from the year 1775 or 1776 to the year 1782 as herein stated -- "I was a substitute for Abraham Millar in the Snowy Camps in the winter of 1775 - '76<sup>1</sup> under the command of Capt. Alexander Turner a detachment of us was ordered to Reedy River after Capt. Cunningham, afterwards a celebrated and bloody Tory Major -- we discovered his party and fired at them -- they dispersed and we captured twenty-one of his Tory associates marched down to Ninety Six where we had them handcuffed and chained and then took them to Charleston and lodged them in Jail -- we then returned home."

"About the last of November or first of December 1778 I was drafted under Capt. Turner, we were ordered to the low country, and about Moncks Corner, we became attached to General Richardson [Richard Richardson] and after leaving there some time, marched to the quarter house, near Charleston, from thence to Jacksonborough and Pocotaligo to Purrysburg, where we fell in with General Lincoln [Benjamin Lincoln], who commanded the Continental forces, our men were under the immediate command of Major Brown -- we stayed at Purrysburg until our term of service expired and I returned home."

"Sometime in the year 1779, before the fall of Charleston, I was then as a militia man, under Capt. Turner, and done duty three months in his company, I remember Col. Kershaw and General Moultrie [William Moultrie] -- from Charleston I returned home."

"In or about May 1780, Capt. Lacey [Samuel Lacey] raised a volunteer Company of about 100 men -- I volunteered under him we were ordered after a party of Tories supposed to be at Mobley's Meeting house<sup>2</sup> -- where we found them and killed a number of them, the remainder of their party fled when our company returned home. About the first of March 1781, Lieut. James Kennedy raised a small party of Whigs (I was one of the number) for the purpose of attacking a company of Tories who were at the Plantation of old James Wylie's<sup>3</sup> -- we routed them through the old fields, after a short time they returned and owing to superior numbers, they compelled us to give way, after killing Samuel Wylie the son of old James Wylie -- our company killed a Tory named Fair."

"About the month of April 1781, I was with Capt. Adams in the Indians Land where we remained a short time and was dismissed. In the month of May 1781, Capt. Adams again ordered me out -- our company were directed to procure provisions for General Greene's [Nathanael Greene's] Army -- we did so; and was then ordered to Fort Granby (called the Congaree Fort)<sup>4</sup> which surrendered to Lieut. Col. Lee -- we were then dismissed.

I was drafted, I believe in the month of February 1782 by Capt. Cooper; Major Wallis [Wallace?] and General Henderson [William Henderson] were our field officers -- we marched to Orangeburg where we were ordered to guard the Jail which contained a large number of Prisoners -- I remained there some time, and returned home -- this was the last of my revolutionary services. I now live in the same neighborhood that I lived in during the Revolutionary War.

Deponent says he has no written discharge; and hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and declares his name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any State or territory.
