[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indecipherable' or 'undeciphered' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention. Researchers should not rely solely on the transcripts but should review the originals for themselves. These transcripts are intended as an aid to research, not to be used in lieu thereof.]

To the Honorable the Congress of the United States
Gentlemen

Your Petitioner Joseph Gaston of the State of South Carolina & Chester District would take the liberty in hopes of calling your friendly attention to his case to State to you a Short Sketch of his privations and painful Sufferings through the Revolutionary Struggle for Liberty and Independence in this his native State.

Being the youngest of nine Brothers who encouraged by the Council of a Patriotick Father were all at times engaged in that Bloody Conflict until five of them fell in the Good cause and your Petitioner is the only one that Survives.

After the fall of our Capitol [Charleston South Carolina fell to the British on May 10, 1780] and the Capture of our Army in it the Enemy Extended their depredations to the back of the State in now Lancaster District where they Massacred Col. Bufort's [Abraham Buford's] Regiment (on their Retreat) on the 29th of May 1780 in a Manner too well known to Require a description at this time this being the last Vestige of opposing force in South Carolina that Bandilla of Traitors & Robers which English Policy decorated by the names of Loyalists began their work and privations on the defenseless Whigs, When a Patriotick young man Captain John McClure of now Chester District collected 32 Volunteers (whose Motto was Liberty or Death) and not more than Twenty miles from the Scene of Col. Bufort's defeat attacked and Scattered the camps of the Loyalists under the Command of Colonel Houseman being more than five to one at the place now known by the name of Beckhamsville. This Spartan Band soon increased and formed the Nucleus of General Sumpter's [sic, Thomas Sumter's] Army when he came to take Command with this Patriotick Band a few days after their embodying I volunteered perhaps the 12th June 1780 being about 16 years of age, and under the Command of General Sumter was first at the attack on the British Garrison at Rocky Mount [July 30, 1780] and next Fought at the Hanging Rock on that day we were the 7th of August [sic, August 6, 1780] when our noble Captain McClure and officers were killed, or received their death Wounds – in the front of the center line and where two Brothers fell with me and I, only recovered from a dangerous wound by a Ball Striking the bridge of the Nose and Passing in under the left eye, Shattering the Cheek bone and going out at the ear by which the Sight in the Eye and Muscles of the under Jaw are much destroyed and the Sight of the Eye much Impaired in now more especially in old Age after Recovering from this Wound Joined General Sumter again and was at the Battle at Blackstocks the 17th of November 1780 [sic, November 20, 1780] Where the General was wounded and had to retire from the Field for some time, at this time his Volunteers Dispersed in small companies to their different Settlements to protect them from the Tories, these unhappy enemies brought the Small Pox, from the British camps and in excursions after them I was smitten with that disease and so violent Kind that my life was almost beyond hope for many weeks, after being Restored to health and fit for duty Volunteered again with Colonel Henry Hampton who was collecting Provisions for General Greene's [Nathanael Greene's] Army and helped to guard it to the camp a few days after the Battle at Camden [Battle of Hobkirk Hill] on the 25th of April 1781, then went from that place as a guard with Major Heron [sic, Edmund Hyrne] one of General Greene's aides to the Siege at Fort Motte [May 7, 1781] near Colonel Thompson's [William Thomson's] and after being there some time was dismissed and returned home about the last of May 1781 in all amounting to one year, the Enemy having now been beaten retreated to the lower parts of the State, I was not called on afterwards. Our aged Father was also about this time removed from this Inhospitable world after living to see four of his Sons give their lives for the cause of their Bleeding Country and himself reduced to absolute Poverty Leaving the care of a Widowed Mother to your Petitioner after the Enemy had Stripped us of every Article of property that it was Possible for the hand of Rapine and Plunder to remove amounting to about 1500 or 2000 $ this was not a large Estate but what made it more Sincerely felt was, that it was all – These losses and these embarrassments produced by them were long and Sorely Experienced as nothing was to be had for Revolutionary Services and losses and while your Treasury was far from being able to meet the most especial demands of our Government and while every State could put its Vets [?] on your collections which may Heaven prevent from ever being the case again.

But now a well regulated Finance and the Prosperity of our Government has enabled you to do ample justice to the few Remaining Patriots of the Revolution by your act of the 7th June 1832 Yet as there is no Discretionary Power left to the Functionaries of Government in the Execution of that Act to make any distinction with respect to wounded men a particular Sufferings and as I never before applied to either General or State Government (which I might have done long since) I now cast myself on your Honorable Body Praying to allow me a reasonable pension as a wounded man in addition to my services to commence from the time of the afore mentioned Act operates being now about to Close my three score and tenth year like others of my fellow Sufferers we cannot long be expensive to Government and would enable your Petitioner in the evening of Life to live more Comfortable and to Liquidate all just demands against him before his final remove Trusting to the Justness of his Claim and the Generosity of Honorable Body he feels Strongly encouraged to submit his case. And as in duty Bound will for ever pray. Drawn up myself and signed by my own Hand.

I John McCreary (a former Member of Congress)<sup>3</sup> do hereby Certify, that I have been acquainted with Joseph Gaston, (the present Petitioner to Congress) from his Infancy, but more particularly from some time before the close of the Revolutionary War until the present day. And can attest that I believe all the facts stated in his Petition to be correctly true. Although I did not see him until after his wounds were healed, yet the marks is largely visible in his face. His nose appears to have been nearly half cut in to [sic, two]. The hole in his cheek & under his Ear where the ball came out, all plain to be seen. And I have often heard him relate the circumstances of himself & Brothers, being all shot down nearly at the same time in the front of the action. And have likewise often heard him complain of the injury done to his eye & Jaw. And have often seen him wearing double specs to try to enlarge the sight.

That he is a man of unblemished good moral character; & deserves well of his Country. Given under my hand this 12th day of January 1833.

State of South Carolina, Chester District

On this 22nd day of June 1833 personally appeared in open Court before me Peter Wylie Judge of the Court of Ordinary in said District, Joseph Gaston Esq. of the district and State aforesaid aged Seventy years last February who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the provisions made by the act of Congress passed the 7th June 1832. That he first entered the Service of his Country in the Revolutionary War at about the age of Sixteen years, and as a volunteer joined Captain John McClure sometime shortly after Buford's defeat, (he thinks five or six days) above Camden in the Waxhaw Settlement, which appears by records to have been on the 19th of May 1780 [sic, May 29, 1780] – and was shortly afterwards detached, with his aged Father to North Carolina to secure him a place of safety – as he was become an object of much unbounded resentment, having a family of nine sons all of whom having taken up arms in defense of Liberty and seven of them in the engagement on the 28th June [1776], when Admiral Parker attacked the fort Moultrie to come up to Charleston[:] he then Returned and continued under Captain J. McClure who was the first that made any resistance to the Enemy in this part of the Country with a few Volunteers, which routed the Tories at Beckhamville [May 31, 1780] – then at Mobley's Meeting house [sic, May 1780] these members marched daily, and soon joined General Sumter [Thomas Sumter] and was the Nucleus of his Army when he came to take the command – he was at the fight at Rocky Mount, where they attacked the Enemy in their strong house on the 31st July 1780 [sic, July 30, 1780] he was next at the Battle of Hanging Rock, that day Week the 7th August [sic, August 6, 1780], where his Captain John McClure, myself, and two brothers fell in the front of the action, the one killed dead on the ground, the other mortally wounded and died of his wounds in Charlotte as did his Captain, that he himself received a ball on the bridge of his nose, and went under the left eye and out by the ear which fractured the cheek bone and much injured the sight of the eye and the muscles of the under Jaw which confined him a considerable length of time in the Hospital in Charlotte – where his brother died.

That as soon as he was thought fit for duty, he joined General Sumter again and was at the battle of Blackstock's on the 17th of November [sic, November 20, 1780], where the General was wounded, and saw his wound dressed the next day at a Mr. Goude-lock, when he the General had to retire from the Army for some time, How long he was out on this expedition he cannot well recollect, but remembers that he came home with his next Captain John Steel and that the Army he thinks then dispersed for sometime as they were volunteers – until the General got able to take the field again and in the meantime he was engaged in said Steel's Company in scouting against and suppressing of the Tories where he caught the Small Pox which he had most violently had and which confined him a considerable length of time. In the Spring when he was again able to turn out, he joined Colonel Henry Hampton under Captain, or perhaps only Lieutenant, William Gaston to collect and carry provisions to General Greene's Army, he went with a number of Wagons and was in the camp about three or four days before the Battle at Camden<sup>5</sup> on the 25th of April 1781 and was sent from there on a Guard under said Gaston with Major Hern [sic, Edmund Hyrne] one of General Greene's Aids, to the Siege of Fort Motte [May 7, 1781] commonly called Thompson's which Siege is said to have commenced the 8th May 1781 he remembers the trenches was in considerable forwardness as he was in them Staid there some days and was dismissed with his officer and the rest of his men, and scouted among the Tories and returned home the latter part of May, which brings it to at least a year from the time he first turned out. Previous to this tour it had been general or all volunteer work as none were turned out but the Whigs, but when the Enemy was driven and retreated down the Country, and the people in some measure got settled at home, then came drafting, but that he does not remember that he ever was drafted or called on afterwards,

That he hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and the invalid pension granted by the last Congress and secured to Invalids by said Congress in the act No. 7 February 19th 1833 – and declares that his name is not on the pension Roll of the agency of any State or of the United States except as above excepted.

Sworn to and subscribed in open Court date as above written.

To the first Interrogatory<sup>6</sup> he answers

I was born on the plantation where I now live in said Chester District on the 22nd of February 1763 as recorded.

Ans 2 I find my age recorded by my Father in his family Bible which as my mother informed me she carried off in her lap when she fled from the Enemy as was the only article almost that was preserved from destruction and plunder

Ans 3 – I have resided all my lifetime at the same place where I now live except, when I was driven from home by the Enemy and in the Service of my Country

Ans 4th I always volunteered as before stated

Ans 5th – I had not the opportunity of being much acquainted with the regular officers, not being much with the Regular Army – but I well remember seeing General Smallwood at Charlotte after Gates defeat [Battle of Camden, August 15-16, 1780], & perhaps others, I knew General Sumter very well, Colonels Hill [William Hill] and Winn [Richard or John Winn] who was both

<sup>6</sup> The War Department promulgated regulations governing pension application format and requiring the following 7 interrogatories to be put to each applicant for a pension:

1st Where and in what year were you born?

2nd Have you any record of your age and if so where is it?

3rd Where were you living when called into service: where have you lived since the Revolutionary War and where do you now live?

4th How were you called into service; were you drafted; did you volunteer or were you a substitute, and if a substitute, for whom?

5th State the names of some of the regular officers who were with the troops where you served, such Continental and militia regiments as you can recollect and the general circumstances of your service.

6th Did you ever receive a discharge from the service, and if so, by whom was it given and what has become of it?

7th State the names of persons to whom you are known in your present neighborhood and who can testify as to your character for veracity and their belief in your services as a soldier in the revolution.

wounded with me at the Hanging Rock, Colonel Williams [James Williams] who fell at King's Mountain, Col. Lacey [Edward Lacey], Hawthorn [James Hawthorn], Bratton [William Bratton] and Major John Adair, late Governor of Kentucky, and for the circumstances of my services I refer to my previous declarations.

Ans 6th It was not the practice to discharge the militia and volunteers in writing only to dismiss them

Ans 7<sup>t</sup> I am so well known in my neighborhood that I get any number of men that might be necessary, to testify to my Veracity, But I will mention a few of the old revolutionist – the Reverend Samuel McCreary, who stood by me when I fell in Battle, John Bishop,<sup>7</sup> James Harbinson [sic, James Harbison]<sup>8</sup>, Esq., Colonel George Gill & the Honorable John McCreary to has been a member of Congress.
