[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indcipherable' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention.]

State of North Carolina County of Stokes

In behalf of Elizabeth Fulp William Young's Explanatory Deposition

Be it known that on this 10th day of September 1840 before me Charles Banner one of the acting Justices of the peace in and for the County aforesaid personally appeared William Young<sup>1</sup> a pensioner of the United States and he being duly sworn according to law to explain how & what he actually knew of the Services rendered by the late Peter Fulp Deceased, as a Soldier in the Revolutionary War, declares on his oath that since Fulp & himself were reared as neighbors together before the War and his Sister Rebecca Young married to Captain Richard Goode in the same neighborhood & then the County of Surry North Carolina that he saw said the Fulp go as a private horseman Soldier & rendezvoused at Dobson's Cross Roads in said County under said Captain Goode & from thence marched towards Fayetteville to subdue the Scotch Tories as this deponent understood but he did not go with them, himself, but returned to his home and he well remembers that the said Captain Goode's Company with other Captains & Companies were gone on that expedition some like three months & returned home to his neighborhood, and he further states that his Brother in law said Captain Goode commanded a Company of militia and said Peter Fulp started as a private in said Company towards the Cherokee Indians in the Summer or fall of the same year that they started to Fayetteville aforesaid, that he this Deponent drove a wagon loaded with provisions &c. for the Army as far as the Blue Ridge & then returned home with said Peter Fulp's Brother Michael Fulp,<sup>2</sup> who also drove a wagon the distance we drove was upwards of 50 miles, that said Peter marched onward with the Regiment and was gone until about the next Christmas at least four months in said Expedition & returned with his Captain Goode & Company, viz. Expeditions he believes happened in the year 1776. He further states that said the Fulp started as a Dragoon private under the command of Captain Miner Smith (who was also a neighbor of his) near the end of the War and they were gone a Tour of about three months, he saw them start & said they were to meet the headquarters at Guilford Court house and Colonel James Martin's Regiment he further recollects that he often heard Captain Smith & said Peter Fulp talk of the route they traveled in said Expedition to Wilmington in North Carolina where they got news of Cornwallis's Surrender [October 19, 1781] to General Washington, further he states he frequently heard said Peter Fulp say that he had served under the Captains as a minute man sometimes a week or more at a time after Tories about old Richmond in Surry County & over the Yadkin in times when this deponent was in the Service himself, but he does not know how long said Fulp served on those scouts, but has just reason to believe that he did faithfully served the three Tours first above mentioned, as he frequently heard Captain Goode & Captain Smith (all being near neighbors) talk with said Fulp of certain [indecipherable word]<sup>3</sup> that occurred in said expeditions, as respects this Deponent's own Services in the Revolution, he states that Lawyer Gillmore drew his Declaration in time of Stokes County Court shortly after the law passed allowing pensions and confused his mind in asking questions, that he could not tell half the routes that he was marched on nor officers names as many of them were strangers to him & strange places he marched into &c.
