King William to wit Thomas Lipscomb came before me one of Commonwealth Justices for the County aforesaid and made oath that the above Certificate contains the truth Given under my hand this 2nd day of November 1811 Jno. Hill

[The following are from rejected claims in the Library of Virginia.]

To his Excellency [several illegible words]
Your Memorialist James Blake [several undeciphered words] that their ancestor James Blake formerly of King William County some time about the spring of 1777 enlisted as a soldier of infantry in the Virginia Continental line in the war of the revolution for five years, which time of enlistment he served [sic] and then reenlisted for and during the War, The said James Blake enlisted on a muster ground then called Butlers old field and the said Blake was wounded in the leg in the battle of Germantown [4 Oct 1777] from which wound he died as they flatter themselves they will be able to prove to your satisfaction. Under the foregoing circumstances your memorialists are advised that the said James Blake at the time of his death was entitled by the laws of the land to military land bounty for his services as soldier in the [Virginia] Continental line for and during the [ink blot here and where marked by ] war and to which they are now entitled as he[] & distributees. They therefore respectfully [] that your Hon’bl body will allow them the [+] by law they are entitled to under the above [] circumstances and will direct the register of the land office of Virginia to issue a warrant or warrants for the same They beg leave to refer the accompanying documents marked D. C. & G as evidence to support their claim and as in duty bound will ever pray &c &c – as witness our hands and seals this 29 day of July 1835.
