To the Honorable John Lloyd Esquire President and the Members of the Honorable Senate of the State of South Carolina

The Memorial of the under written

Sheweth

That your Memorialists have served for several years past as Commissioned Officers of the said State, in the Army of the United States, that their pay and Subsistence have been settled up to the Commencement of the year 1780. That the same was paid in the kind of money which fell far short of the generous Intentions of the Honorable the Continental Congress, or of those of the Honorable the General Assembly of this State. That the reduction of Charles Town [Charleston South Carolina fell to the British on May 12, 1780], Involved them in Common with the rest of their fellow Citizens in Circumstances the most distressing. That from that fatal era, this State has been Totally unable to Assist them in a manner adequate to the very liberal Resolves which from time to time have been passed in their favor – That the impracticability of furnishing their Quota of men, has pointed out to Congress the expediency of retaining no more Officers then were Actually necessary for Commanding the men we have, thereby the greatest Number of your Memorialists are Deranged, without being Allowed to draw Even the Scanty Support of Rations, & though in want of Every thing, are without any present Subsistence whatever – Their attendance to the duties of their Respective Offices having thrown them Out of the line of their former Occupations, and which they have not yet been able again to enter upon – To add to their distresses, many of them still Remain prisoners of war on parole.

Thus situated, your Memorialists beg leave to Intrude on your important Hours, so far as to request that their Situation may be taken into your very Serious Consideration – that their Arrearages for pay and subsistence, and depreciation for pay and subsistence may be finally liquidated and Adjusted and Treasury Indents bearing the usual Interest given to each Officer for the same – That if this Honorable House should think it improper, that the whole of such Indents should be received in payment of Publick property, Sold at auction, That at least a part thereof should. Or that such other Relief Should be granted them, as this House in their wisdom shall think proper –

And your Memorialist will Ever pray.
