State of Virginia Caroline County to wit

On this __ day personally appeared before me Henry C. Coleman a Justice of the peace in said County & State George Mason aged eighty-three years, who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the provision of the Act of Congress passed June 7th 1832. "That sometime in the year 1775 he enlisted under Captain Oliver Towles (Lawyer) in what was then called the minute Service, living then in Spotsylvania County, after the Regiment was so completed as to justify it we were called out into Service 20 days in camp a few miles below Fredericksburg on the Rappahannock River to learn Soldiers' duty; In the same fall Richard Johnston of Caroline County was appointed Colonel to the Regiment; after which we had to meet & muster 4 days in a month; we were not called into actual Service until towards August 1776; we then marched down about 3 miles below Williamsburg to Springfield camp commanded by Major Andrew Buckannan [Andrew Buchanan] (Fras. Taliaferro [Francis Taliaferro] being Captain). After being there a short time, we were marched to Hampton, we did not stay there very long before we were discharged by an act of the General Assembly as was then said. So the minute Service was put down, that soon after this he was enrolled in the Militia, that shortly afterwards there was a call for 100 Volunteers from Spotsylvania to go down to Williamsburg for 40 days; two captains were appointed, Captains Craig [perhaps John Craig] & Bartlett [perhaps Thomas Bartlett], that he was in Craig's Company & marched down to Williamsburg & remained there until the tour was out, Colonel Winslow [Lt. Col. Beverley Winslow] of Spotsylvania commanded. Sometime after this in April 1779 he removed into Caroline to live & served a tour in the Militia under Captain John Tyler who marched to Williamsburg & continued there until General Arnold [Benedict Arnold] drove us out then we marched across Ruffin's ferry into King William [County], thence to Page's Town & thence to Richmond; here we continued till relieved: that most of the time he was in Service was under Colonel Thomas Mathews of the 3rd Virginia Regiment; that soon after this he served under Captain Francis Tompkins in the Marquiss’s flying Tour [Marquis’ [sic, Lafayette’s] Flying Tour] as it was then commonly called, afterwards Captain John Clarke supplied the place of Captain Tompkins, with whom he served at Dandridge's old Field; some short time afterwards Joseph Dejarnett acted as Captain until the tour was out, Some time, to the best of his memory in the year 1780. That afterwards he marched down after Cornwallis below New Kent Courthouse where he remained some time in camp, after which he returned & went to
