Pension application of Lewis Collins S21142

Transcribed by Will Graves 5/30/11

State of Tennessee County of Hawkins: On this 16th day of August 1834 personally appeared before me Lewis Mitchell one of the acting Justices of the County of Hawkins Lewis Collins a resident of the County of Grainger and State of Tennessee aged eighty years who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the provision made by the act of Congress passed June 7th 1834 –

That he entered the service of the United States in the year 1776 first of August as a drafted prive [sic, private?] under the Command of Captain James Stean [James Steen] [Andrew Williamson] in the Regiment of Colonel Williamson and marched against the Cherokee Indians that were doing mischief on the frontiers of South Carolina. I was then living in the State of South Carolina, the name of the County I think as well as I recollect was Montgomery it was on the waters of Broad River. Captain Steen's Company met at his house and we marched on to the frontiers of said state and joined Williamson at a place where the Indians had killed two families by the name of White and parrie [sic?] we marched from there without any particular occurrence until we arrived in the nation at a town called Keewee on Keewee River called by the Indians . We there stationed ourselves the Indians had left the place we scouted about in the nation different times and different directions we took some Indians, killed some and also destroyed their crops of potatoes and corn by cutting down their corn we also burnt all the houses and lawns [sic?] we could find and then we returned home upon the same route arrived home about the 15th of December when we were dismissed without any discharge being gone four months and 15 days as well as I could recollect. In the year 1778 I had hired myself to make a crop in South Carolina Montgomery County with one Charles Tompson as I was not then a man of a family and there was a call for men and I was drafted again – I went under the command of my same Captain James Steen. I went from the same County the company of my Captain was to join some Regiment as I understood somewhere near Ninety Six but on our march our Captain told us he had received orders that we were not wanted and was returned home again and was dismissed. We returned home again the last of May – we were gone one month – I returned home and finish my crop and then left the state of South Carolina and went into the state of Virginia to my father's house in Montgomery County – I resided in that County until the year 1781 when there was a call for men that had to go out of the Captain's Company I was in five men There was a draft and it fell my lot to go again. I entered the service again in Montgomery County State of Virginia first of June 1781 under the command of Captain Gordon – we joined the Regiment of Colonel Malbury [probably a reference to Francois Leloirquis Marquis de Malmady (also Malmedy, Malmèdy)] – and marched on through some part of North Carolina the Counties I do not recollect and joined General Green [Nathanael Greene] at a place called the High Hills of Santee. We marched on from there towards Charlestown in South Carolina. On our march we engaged with a party of British at a place called the Eutaw Springs under the command of Colonel Stuart [Lt. Col. Alexander Stewart] as I was told. Here a severe battle took place I think as well as I now recollect sometime in the first of September. We defeated the British and took a great many prisoners. I was drafted for three months but when my time expired I could not get off until new recruits came in. I was ordered to the Regiment of Colonel Locke and took charge of the prisoners we went on with the prisoners near Salisbury where we were met by a new guard and there we was discharged. I received my discharge from Colonel Locke which I have long since lost. I returned home I think as well as I now recollect near the first of November being gone five months. And I never was out anymore. This applicant further states the cause of his making his declaration in the County of Hawkins is he lives near the line of Hawkins County – he is very old and frail and has lost his hearing in a great measure he does about but very little and what intercourse he has with the neighbors are chiefly with Hawkins as he belongs to the Baptist Church and the church to which he belongs is in Hawkins County and it is all the place to which he has gone for several years. This declarant knows of no one whom he can prove his services by, he says he has no documentary evidence of his service he hereby relinquishes every Claim to a pension or annuity except the present and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of any agency of any state. Sworn to and subscribed the day and year aforesaid before me
