Personally appeared Thomas Marshall before me Benjamin Watkins one of the Acting Justices of the peace in the County aforesaid, & declared, after being duly sworn for the purpose, that Thomas Brown, who has now visited him for the purpose of obtaining proof of his being of the fit subjects to be place’d on the pension List of the United States, saith, that he well recollects the said Brown, & knew him, as soon as he came in his presence, & had not seen him before since he left him in Winter quarters in the year 1783 on the Here Law [?] River in South Carolina at a place called Tick Town; the said Marshall declares that he knows nothing certainly himself of the enlistment of the said Brown, but he was there as a Revolutionary Soldier & was reputed in the Army & so considered as a soldier who had enlisted for during the War in the Continental Line in the Rendegment commanded by Colo. Anthony W. White & John Watts’ troop of dragoons & at that time had a blemish in one Eye & could not see well out of said Eye, & now the said Eye has sunk & entirely out. The said Marshall also says he left him, early in April 1783 in the

The additional amenditory declaration of Thomas Brown in order to obtain the benefits of the provisions made by Act of Congress passed June 7th 1832

That he enlisted and served as stated in his former declaration; that he marched under Capt. Tibbs; then under Capt Lamb both of whom belonged to the Infantry and then was transferred by enlistment to the command of Col. White of the Cavalry near Chickahominy and served as such until discharged this discharge was filed in the land office in the State of Virginia where he expects the evidence could still be found it may be possible that my name may be found on the roll of Capt. Lambs of Infantry altho he done duty in the Cavalry and refers to said roll

From a Letter he received of Richard Rush it appeared his name was found as it stated he had served three years only. He further states that he does not only claim for services as a private under the Virginia continental establishment, altho he did serve as such; but that he claims for services rendered while in the Virginia line having enlisted in said line for three years.
