VA
Transcribed and annotated by C. Leon Harris. Revised 1 Sep 2020.

The following statement of facts, are given in corroboration of what is set forth in my declaration hereunto annexed:

I was born in St. Maries [sic: St. Marys] County State of Maryland, and at the commencement of the American revolution I lived in Culpepper [sic: Culpeper] County State of Virginia. I entered into service in support of the rights of my country, when I was in my nineteenth year and continued from this period in the discharge of my duty as a soldier in several of the states until the close of the War, as will be shown. In March 1775 I entered as a private in a volunteer company, commanded by Capt’n. Edward Stephens [sic: Edward Stevens VAS1922]. In this company I continued until the fall following. I then enlisted as a private in a regiment of Minute Men, which was raised by the counties of Orange, Fauquier and Culpepper. The period of enlistment was for a year, the company to which I belonged was commanded by Capt’n Jno. Jimison [sic: John Jameson R15404] & the Reg’t. by Col. Wm. Taliferro [sic: William Taliaferro]. We were in the action at the great Bridge [9 Dec 1775], & I done duty through the winter at Norfolk. In April 1776 I returned home and in July following enlisted as a private under Capt’n. John Jimison of Culpepper County, in a Regiment of Cavalry Commanded by Col. Bland [Theodorick Bland VAS1859] on the continental establishment. Shortly after I had joined this regiment, I was permitted to withdraw for the purpose of enlisting in a Rifle [sic: Rifle] company commanded by Capt’n. G. Long [Gabriel Long VAS970]. Which company was attached to a Reg’t. command by Col. Stinson, Rollins Lieut. Col. and Otho Williams Major [sic: Col. Hugh Stephenson, Lt. Col. Moses Rawlings VAS683, Maj. Otho Holland Williams]. In November following we were ordered to join the northern army commanded by Gen’l Washington. We joined the army whilst on its retreat through the state of Jersey near Elizabeth Town. By the fall of Fort Washington [16 Nov 1776] our Reg’t. was greatly reduced by the loss of men, & in consequence of which Cap. G. Long’s company was transfered to the 11th Virginia Reg’t. commanded by Col. Daniel Morgan. In June 1777 I was promoted from the ranks to the rank of a Lieutenant in the line. soon after I was commissioned a Rifle Reg’t. was formed by companies taken from the army & the command given to Col. Morgan. Capt’n. Longs Company (being an old Rifle corps) was enlisted & made a part of this Reg’l. I was with Gen’l. [Horatio] Gates army when Gen’l. Burgoyne surrendered [at Saratoga, 17 Oct 1777]. After this affair we joined the main army under Gen’l. Washington encamped at White Marsh [Whitemarsh PA]. I was with Morgan at the battle of Monmouth [28 Jun 1778]. About this time the Reg’t was reduced in consequence of the short enlistments to one company of Rifle men. The command was given to Capt’n. Thos. Posey [Thomas Posey BLWt1730-450] in it I retained my commission. The company was ordered to join the 4th Pensylvania [sic: Pennsylvania] Reg’t. commanded by Col [Richard] Butler. We were ordered to the State of New York to guard its frontiers & was stationed at Schoharry [sic: Schoharie] Valley. from this station we were ordered to march to a rendezvous on the Mohawk river. We ascended this river in Batteaus with the Baggage to a certain point then crossed by land to the Otsgo [sic: Otsego] Lake, down its waters to the mouth of Tusager [sic: Susquehanna] river to join Gen’l. [John] Sullivan who was on his Western expedition against the Indians. Late in the fall of 1779 we joined the army under Gen’l. Washington & here I was informed that I belonged to the 7th Virginia Reg’t.

Dec’r. 1779 I got a furlough and returned home on foot in company with five others among whom was our present Chief Justice, Judge Marshall [John Marshall S5731]. Continued at home until Oct’r. 16th 1780 was then ordered with some recruits to join the southern army. I arrived at Hillsborough [NC], about the time Gen’l. Green took the command of the Southern troops [sic: Nathanael Greene, 3 Dec 1780] & took command in a company commanded by Capt. Wallace, which company was a part of what was then called the 1st Virginia Reg’t. of Beaufort [sic: Abraham Buford S46372]. I was at the battle of Guilford [Guilford Courthouse NC, 15 Mar 1781]. the Reg’t. was commanded by Maj’r. Ridley [Thomas Ridley
Soon after this action I was ordered with a detachment to join Col Washington's [William Washington's] Reg't. of Horse & to act w't. them as infantry. I was in the action at Hopkirk Hill near Camden [sic: Battle of Hobkirk Hill, 25 Apr 1781], in this action I fought under the command of Capt [Robert] Kirkwood of the Delaware Line, under whom I continued until after the Siege of 96 [Ninety Six SC, 22 May - 19 Jun 1781]. I was then ordered to join the Reg't. from which I had been detached, which is now called the 2d Virginia Reg't. I was in the action at the Eutaw Spring [Battle of Eutaw Springs SC, 8 Sep 1781]. The Reg't. in that action was commanded by Maj'r. Sneed [sic: Smith Snead]. In 1782 the Virginia Reg't's. were much reduced, in consequence of the time for which the men having enlisted being expired, they were permitted to return home, and I was after permitted to return w' h. them & not long after peace was proclaimed. During the War I received three commissions. I was while in service particularly careful of them, but what has come of them since I cant say.
