[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indecipherable' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention.]

Declaration

In order to obtain the benefits of the 3rd Section of the Act of 4th of July 1836 and of the first section of the act of the 3rd of March 1837

State of North Carolina Cumberland County

On this 20th day of May 1841 personally appeared before me one of the Justices of the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions for Cumberland County – Mrs. Judith Langdon aged eighty-four years who being first duly sworn according to law doth on her oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the provision made by the act of Congress passed July 4th 1836, and the act explanatory of said act, passed March 3rd 1837. That she was married to Thomas Hayes on the 18th of March 1774 at the house of Parson Alexander in the County of Hertford North Carolina; she and the said Thomas Hayes being citizens of Virginia & residing in Nansemond County at the time at the commencement of the War of the Revolution her husband the said Thomas Hayes joined the Army near Norfolk and was appointed a Lieutenant and served as such with few intervals when he returned home, all the war; the evidence of his service and its links she has reason to believe will appear by the records of the state of Virginia. She declares that after the close of the war viz. in the year 1787 or 1788, her husband removed to Cumberland County North Carolina where she has continued to reside up to the present time. When she left Virginia her husband had a record of their marriage and the ages of their children which has been destroyed by the burning of the house he lived in. At the time she left Virginia she had three children the first born in 1776, the second in 1777, and the third in 1779 – the two first are dead, the third she now lives with and is the wife of Edward Green, being in the sixty second year of her age, as stated she has now no record of the ages of her children or of her marriage but feels well convinced it was placed on the Register kept by Parson Alexander; the bans being published for three Sundays before the marriage. The fact that she was married to Thomas Hayes and his serving in the revolution she is convinced can be proved by persons in Hertford and Gates County where all her friends and relations now alive live. Her residence being immediately on the North Carolina line nearly all her friends & relations are in this State. She further declares as before stated that she was married to Thomas Hayes on the 18th day of March 1744 and that her husband the said Thomas Hayes died on the 10th day of January 1810 in the County of Cumberland North Carolina. That she was afterwards married to James Langdon on the 12th day of June 1813 who died on the 2nd day of March 1833 – and that she was a widow on the 4th of July 1836 and still remains a widow as will more fully appear by the proof hereunto annexed. Her second marriage she has always considered would prevent her from claiming anything for the services of her first husband and it is but lately that she has come to the knowledge of the fact that it will not deprive her of her rights.

The affidavit of John Vann Esquire now in the 79th year of his age taken to prove the marriage of Thomas Hayes with Judith Friar. Being first duly sworn according to law testifies and says, He was born and raised in the same neighborhood with Thomas Hayes and Judith Friar. He was too young to be present at the marriage of Thomas Hayes and his wife; but has every reason to believe it took place at the time mentioned by Mrs. Hayes now Mrs. Langdon. This affiant knows and well recollects that they were married at the commencement of the revolution in 1776; and that Mrs. Hayes had at that time a child. The departure of Mr. Hayes to join the Army at that time and his wife being a cousin of this affiant all operated to fix the fact on his memory. Thomas Hayes was first as I have understood at Norfolk; and I well recollect that he returned after being absent for a considerable time and at a muster a short time before the defeat of General Gates [battle of Camden, August 15-16, 1780] he was an active man in favor of the war; and during the day he quarreled with a man by the name of Smith whose attachment to the American cause was doubted. The fact of his being a conspicuous man on the occasion, his wearing a uniform of an officer, and quarreling with Smith, who by the by was killed at Gates defeat – all these circumstances made a lasting impression on the mind of this affiant. This affiant cannot speak with the same accuracy that the other witnesses in this matter have as to dates: but he is as well convinced of the accuracy of their statements in relation to the period of the marriage of Mrs. Hayes; the service and rank of Thomas Hayes; and that he was in the service of Virginia as he can be of anything whatever. His own recollection and tradition confirming his opinions. That Thomas Hayes was married to Judith Friar at the time he left home and joined the Army in 1776 is a fact as well known and recollected by this affiant as any other thing whatsoever. This affiant well knew Parson Alexander and at the period of referred to us the date of the marriage of Thomas Hayes and his wife, he was the only person authorized to solemnize the rites of matrimony until the war was declared and a constitution made – and this affiant has no doubt he did marry them. Thomas Hayes and his wife removed from Virginia to Cumberland County in this State and there lived and died. His widow now applying for a pension is unquestionably the same person known to me as his wife as far back as 1776.

Given under my hand this 5th day of June 1841

"I was in service with him at Suffolk in 1776 and on our return he was made a Lieutenant and went to the North where he
