On 12 Apr 1855 Lucy Sterne (as she signed) applied for bounty land, giving her age as 56 and stating that her name was Lucy Beazley when she was married to David Sterne in Caroline County by a Baptist minister named Hipkins Pitman.

On 17 Apr 1866 Jos. W. Kay of Port Royal in Caroline County wrote to the Commissioner of Pensions as follows: “Mrs. Lucy Sterne of this county – the widow of David Sterne who served in the Revolution, has been pensioned by your office for years till the 4th of March ’61 and we suppose her name has been stricken from your list. She is now in great need, having nothing left but a small piece of poor land. She was & has been opposed to the Rebellion from the beginning. Please write us what steps are necessary to have her reinstated & to enable her to get her pension.” On 27 May 1866 Lucy Sterne applied to be restored to the pension roll, stating that during the Civil War “her means of subsistence have been such as she could glean from the hire of a few servants & the rest of a small piece of poor land; that now she has her land only.”

D. S. Cash applied for reimbursement of a medical bill for the last illness and for the burial expenses for his grandmother, Lucy Sterne of Port Royal in Caroline County, who died of “old age” on 28 Oct 1878. Cash stated that her property consisted only of “some little house furniture of no market value.” On 5 Apr 1879, however, G. S. Sterne of Caroline County wrote as follows: “My mother Lucy Sterne who was an revolutionary Pensioner died on the 27th of last October having a small annuity of Pension due her at the time of her death. Some short time thereafter I addressed the Agency in Tenesee setting forth the fact and received his answer which I herewith inclose My mother left a sufficiency to pay her expence during her sickness and expences thereto after death, as she owened a farm which would have been a sufficiency without any moiety from the Government. I understand that a petition has ben sent to the Department setting forth that she did not leave assets enough to defray the expences of her sickness and funeral expences and if such be the fact a fraud has been practiced on the department.”
